

EGHC hires Chief Information Officer (CIO)

East Georgia Healthcare Center is pleased to announce the hiring of Mr. Herman Thompson as Chief Information Officer (CIO).

Mr. Thompson worked with East Georgia Healthcare Center as an independent IT contractor for the 7 years prior to his hiring. Mr. Thompson has worked with Community Healthcare Center's like EGHC for the past 10 years in the state of Georgia.

A veteran of the IT revolution, his professional IT career spans 16 years covering all facets of the computer / data management industry as a whole. His background of managing data networks, repairing and maintaining computer systems as well as graphic design and website development make him an asset to the technological development of the Swainsboro area.

Mr. Thompson holds numerous IT related certifications from companies such as Microsoft, Sonicwall, and Comptia. He was also one of 30 individuals chosen from the entire IT industry by Comptia in 2002 to participate in the update / re-write of the A+ certification exam.

Mr. Thompson currently serves on the Georgia Association for Primary Healthcare (GAPHC) MIS Committee, Chairman of the Georgia Healthcare Systems (GHS) EMR Committee and is the acting district CHC representative for DHR's Bio-Terrorism Program.

“EGHC has always worked to improve the healthcare of our community through the use of technology such as Electronic Medical Records (EMR). Having Herman on our staff will help to insure that we are moving forward on the right track for years to come”
EGHC CEO, Jennie Wren Denmark.

East Georgia Healthcare Center, Inc. is a not-for-profit, community-based organization dedicated to improving the health and quality of life for all residents of Emanuel, Tattnall, and Treutlen Counties, regardless of their race, color, creed, religion, national origin, age, gender, disability, veteran status, and/or ability to pay. EGHC has three locations in Southeast Georgia, Swainsboro, Reidsville and Soperton.
