

EGHC Welcomes New Family Practitioner, Dr. Anthony Salvo

06/15/2005

East Georgia Healthcare Center is pleased to announce the hiring of Anthony Salvo, MD as a full-time Board Certified Family Practitioner in our Reidsville office.

Dr. Salvo has a strong Community Healthcare background. He comes to EGHC from Hill Health Corporation (also a Community Healthcare Center) in New Haven, Connecticut where he served for 4 years as a Family Physician. Prior to that he was a Family Physician and Medical Director for Stamford Community Health Center in Stamford, Connecticut.

During that time he also served as the Clinical Adjunct Assistant Professor at Quinnipiac University in Hamden, Connecticut from 2000 until 2005. He is fluent in English, Spanish and Italian.

“We are excited about having a medical provider with an extensive background like Dr. Salvo’s on our staff in Reidsville. He is a breath of fresh air and professionalism for the medical community in Reidsville,” Sanjay Serrao, M.D., EGHC Medical Director

Dr. Salvo received his BA in Psychology from Stockton State College in 1982 and his MD in 1989 from Universidad Autonoma de Guadalajara, Guadalajara, Mexico. He is Board Certified by the American Board of Family Practice.

“We have a lot of exciting developments in store for the Reidsville medical community and Dr. Salvo will undoubtedly help us to reach our goals, to the benefit of the entire community,” Jennie Wren Denmark, EGHC CEO.

East Georgia Healthcare Center, Inc. is a not-for-profit, community-based organization dedicated to improving the health and quality of life for all residents of Emanuel, Tattnall, and Treutlen Counties, regardless of their race, color, creed, religion, national origin, age, gender, disability, veteran status, and/or ability to pay. EGHC has three locations in Southeast Georgia, Swainsboro, Reidsville and Soperton.
